

LIFE TERM CONVICT HERE AS WITNESS ESCAPES FROM JAIL

Ryan, Sentenced for Murder,
Saw Jefferson Market Bars
and Scales Wall With Pole.

John Ryan, twenty-five years old, under sentence in Auburn for twenty years to life, and brought here as a witness, escaped at 5 A. M. to-day from Jefferson Market Prison. His was the second escape since Sunday, a "trusty" having been assisted through the coal chute Sunday night by four confederates.

Ryan was in a cell on the second tier facing Greenwich Avenue. In some way he obtained a file and cut a bar of his cell. He then took a window pole with a hook on the end, hung it in the window, slid down and dropped to the yard, twenty feet below. The pole next was hooked to the iron fence on the stone wall, and Ryan climbed hand-over-hand to the top of the wall.

A milkman saw him drop to the street and run. He notified Police-McManus at Perry Street and Greenwich Avenue, but the fugitive had had time to get out of the neighborhood. Keeper Curran notified Police Headquarters and a general alarm was sent out for Ryan. He formerly lived at No. 310 West Thirtieth Street.

Ryan was brought here on March 27 to testify in the trial of Joseph McCarthy, who is charged with aiding him in the murder of Harry Green, a Ninth Avenue saloonkeeper. Night Keeper Henry Baum was suspended after an hour's investigation by District Warden P. A. Mallon of the Department of Corrections. Baum said he had seen Ryan apparently asleep in his cell half an hour before the alarm of his escape was received. Ryan had visitors at the prison last Sunday.

MAN WITH PLIERS SEIZED IN TELEGRAPH BUILDING

Morris Lipschitz, who lives at a hotel in Bleeker Street, is being detained at Police Headquarters to-day on a charge of unlawful entry until he gives a more satisfactory explanation of the reason for his presence in the sub-basement of the Western Union Building, Broadway and Dey Street, where he was found early this morning. He says he lost his way while looking for a subway train, entering the cellar by way of a door which leads from the subway. Officials of the building say this story was looked up. A special officer found Lipschitz near the cable room. In the prisoner's pocket were found a heavy pair of shears and a pair of wire pliers. Lipschitz said he used in his trade of tailor. Small fragments of metal and several bunches of keys were also found on him. He speaks German fluently.

MOVIE MAN'S HEAD DAMAGED.

Manager Accused in Court of Attacking Company's President.

Harry A. Sanwick, manager of the Ivan Film Manufacturing Company, was held this morning by Magistrate Kroski for examination on a charge of felonious assault on President Ivan Abrahamson of the company. He was released on $500 cash bail.

Abrahamson was in court with a turban of bandages around his head, but declined to explain. Sanwick was equally uncommunicative. Detectives Carlson and Calhane, who arrested Sanwick on a warrant last night, said that they understood that there had been a meeting of the directors of the company Monday night.

In response to a remark made by the President, they understood. Manager Sanwick had struck Abrahamson between the eyes with a paperweight and had followed this up with his fist. Sanwick's examination was set for the 15th.

SHOT WIFE, THEN SOUGHT AID

Kubrick Took Wounded Woman to Hospital Steps and Left Her There.

FERTH AMROY, N. J., April 11.—Kaspar Kubrick, a Slav, is being sought by the police on a charge of having shot his wife Mary early this morning. Kubrick recently served a term in jail for beating her. Last night when he reached home she was not there. He sought her. He found her sitting in a chair in the living room.

They walked together to their own home in Brown Street, quarrelling all the way. In front of their home Kubrick fired at his wife. The bullet went in one cheek and passed out the other. He then took her by the arm, walked her to the City Hospital, and her down on the steps, rang the bell and disappeared.

CROSSES SEA TO WED SOLDIER SHE ENLISTED TO SERVE UNCLE SAM.

Miss Van Essen Finds Man She Spurred to Fight Already a Captain.

On a ship arriving here to-day from abroad was Miss Jane Van Essen, who proudly and happily sent ahead of her a wireless message through Sandy Hook to Peter Van der Mark of the importing firm of J. B. Crockett & Co., No. 45 Whitehall Street, something like this: "I am coming to keep my promise; please meet me."

And at the pier, with Mrs. Crockett, was Mr. Van der Mark, looking as though he would like to grab a cable and help swing the ship alongside the pier.

Two years ago, Mr. Van der Mark, who is a native American of Dutch descent, met Miss Van Essen. She was widely known as a writer for the London Tatler under the pen name of Kiki. He fell very much in love with her. Miss Van Essen said that no matter whether she was in love with him she was head over heels in relief work and, anyway, if she married she would marry a soldier.

She suggested that Mr. Van der Mark enlist. As an American with heavy business responsibilities he did not see how he could, in fairness to his associates. He promised to become a soldier when the United States went to war.

"Then I shall marry you when your country gets into the war," said the very charming and very obstinate young woman.

Mr. Van der Mark came home and had a happy inspiration. He entered a Plattsburg training camp. Technically Plattsburg men are enlisted. But the technicality did not pass with the young woman across the Atlantic.

Mr. Van der Mark kept on going to Plattsburg, and a few weeks ago passed an examination for a commission as Captain in the Officers' Reserve Corps. When the President's war message was sent to Congress he called Miss Van Essen:

"The war is here. Come over and keep that promise."

He had no reply until the arrival of the wireless message early this morning.

"You are really ready to keep your promise?" he said, as soon as he had introduced his partner's wife. Then he explained that he was Capt. Van der Mark, U. S. R.

"But when?" said the young woman. "Right now!"

Before she could so much as murmur a protest Capt. Van der Mark had called a taxi, bundled the two women into it and they were away for the marriage license bureau in the Municipal Building.

NOT MUCH TO BRYCE'S SON.

The will of Gen. Lloyd S. Bryce, who died April 2 last, was filed for probate yesterday in Mineola, L. I. It disposes of an estate estimated at almost $3,000,000.

A son, Peter, gets all the pictures in the Manhattan house. The house is to be sold, the son receiving one half the proceeds and his two sisters the other half. They are Mrs. Cornelia A. Pinchot, wife of Gifford Pinchot, and Mrs. M. C. Cram, wife of J. Sergeant Cram. They are to receive the residuary estate in equal shares.

The son receives nothing, else, the will stating that he was well provided for by his mother.

DANDRUFF GOES! HAIR GETS THICK, WAVY, BEAUTIFUL

Save your hair! Double its beauty in a few moments. Try this!

Hair stops coming out and every particle of dandruff disappears.

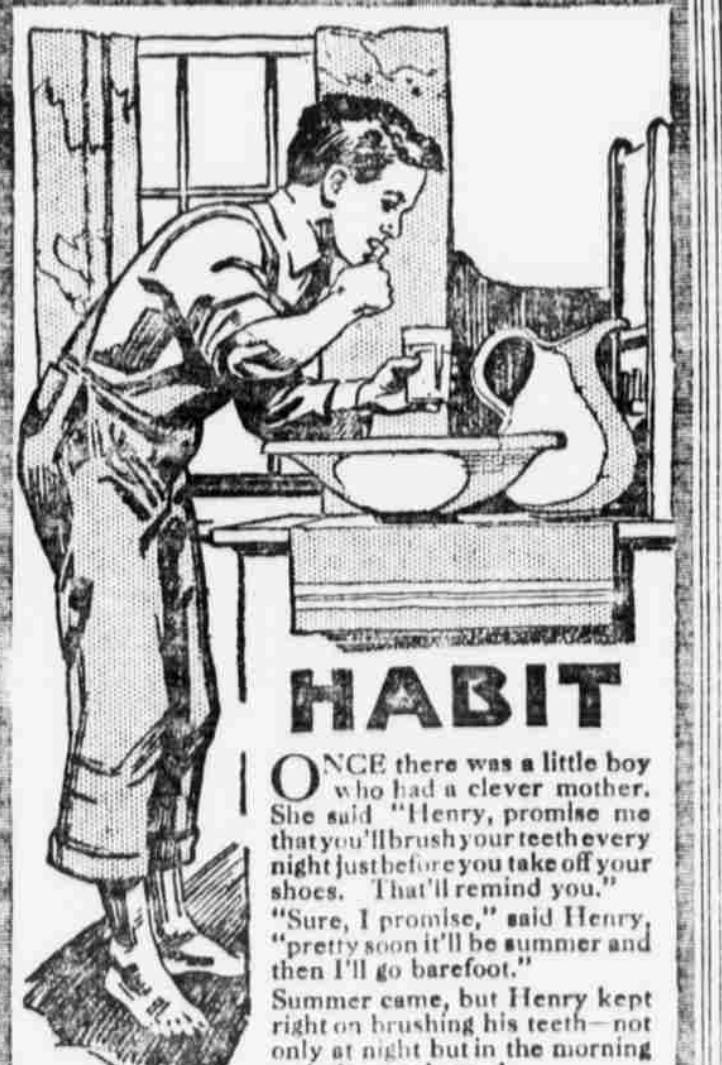

Try as you will, after an application of Danderine you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes, but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scrappy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is immediate and amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance, an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all.

Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

HABIT

ONCE there was a little boy who had a clever mother. She said "Henry, promise me that you'll brush your teeth every night just before you take off your shoes. That'll remind you."

"Sure, I promise," said Henry, "pretty soon it'll be summer and then I'll go barefoot."

Summer came, but Henry kept right on brushing his teeth—not only at night but in the morning and after each meal.

The habit clung—maybe because Henry liked the clean, cool tang of S. S. White Tooth Paste which tastes just as good as it is. Your druggist has it. Sign and mail the coupon below for a copy of our booklet "Good Teeth: How They Grow And How To Keep Them."
